OPPORTUNITY DESCRIPTION

Online Canvas Training: May 8th to August 22nd
Fall Start Date: September 8th, End Date: December 1st for completion of the first semester

Description & Responsibilities

Career Peers support students and recent alumni with their work search by providing practical advice for building resumes, writing cover letters, and using tools like LinkedIn for building professional online presence. Support is offered through one on one consultations, outreach, workshops and more. This is an excellent opportunity for those interested in developing their career related knowledge, educating techniques, public speaking and planning skills in a variety of settings. All Career Peers become members of our Career & Volunteer Services team forming long-term professional relationships.

As a Career Peer, you can expect to:

- Participate in canvas and classroom training on Resume, Cover Letter, building an on-line presence as well as leading educational sessions, facilitating workshops and conducting outreach activities
- Provide one-to-one assistance to students and recent graduates on resume, cover letter, and building professional online presence through LinkedIn
- Assist with workshops related to resume, cover letter, and building professional online presence through LinkedIn
- Propose, plan and implement outreach to inform the SFU community of Career & Volunteer services
- Participate in weekly group discussions
- Facilitate a 1 hour Presentation individually or with a partner during in class training
- Pass practical tests related to resumes, cover letters and LinkedIn/online presence
- Participate in 1 review per semester
- Participate in online environments by facilitating online discussions within canvas or writing blog articles
- Participate in a self-led learning plan to improve personal development goals
- Other duties as assigned
