BEFORE YOU START AT SFU

STEP 1
- Apply to change the conditions of your study permit to allow you to study at the post-secondary level:
  - Apply early -- this process can take months to complete
  - High school study permits are not valid for post-secondary studies, so you must have your new study permit before you can begin studying at SFU

STEP 2
- If you are in British Columbia and have not already done so, apply for the BC Medical Services Plan (BC MSP):
  - MSP is required by law for anyone living in BC for more than 6 months.
  - If your MSP will soon expire (or has already expired), apply to extend it after extending your study permit
  - It will take about a month to process your MSP application -- apply early so that you will be able to opt out of the Guard.me@SFU plan with proof of MSP coverage.

STEP 3
- Complete the University Prep online transition course.
- Sign up and attend orientation and welcome events.

AFTER YOU START AT SFU

STEP 4
- If you already have valid BC MSP coverage, opt out of the Guard.me@SFU plan online for a full refund before the opt-out deadline.
- If you are new to British Columbia, apply for the BC Medical Services Plan (MSP) as soon as you arrive. Your coverage will begin two to three months after your arrival date in BC:
  - Opt out of the Guard.me@SFU plan when your BC MSP takes effect (after the waiting period). You may be eligible for a partial refund of the guard.me@SFU fee if there is more than one month remaining in the term, and you have not used the plan.
- Make changes to your secondary insurance if necessary (i.e. opt down to the basic plan, or opt out with equivalent coverage) during the opt-out period for Studentcare.

STEP 5
- Learn SFU’s enrollment requirements for international students:
  - This will affect your ability to work, study, and stay in Canada
- Determine your eligibility to work on campus or off campus.
- Apply for a Social Insurance Number (SIN) if you are eligible and planning to work in Canada:
  - You must provide your SIN to your employer within three days of starting work
