SCHOLARSHIPS, AWARDS, BURSARIES AND WORK-STUDY

University administered scholarships, awards and bursaries, as well as SFU’s Work-Study program, are available each term to full-time Canadian and International students whose “home” school (i.e. the school where you are registered in the most credits/units for the term you are applying for) is SFU.

Scholarships
Scholarships recognize high academic achievement.

- Must have a minimum CGPA (at SFU) of 3.50.
- Must be enrolled in a minimum of 9 units/credits of normally graded courses in the term of application.
- Must have completed at least 9 units at SFU.
- Cannot be in receipt of an ongoing SFU entrance scholarship.
- To apply – complete an application which can be downloaded at: http://students.sfu.ca/forms/UGprscap.pdf.
- Application deadline – the end of the second week of classes (for dates, refer to http://students.sfu.ca/deadlines/#finances).

Awards
Awards recognize distinguished intellectual, cultural, social or athletic contributions to University life. Some awards are by nomination only.

- Must have a minimum CGPA (at SFU) of 2.00 during the term of contribution.
- Must not be on academic probation (at either institution).
- Must be enrolled in a minimum of 9 units/credits of normally graded courses in the term of eligibility.
- To apply – complete an application which can be downloaded at: http://students.sfu.ca/forms/UGprscap.pdf.
- Application deadline – the end of the second week of classes (for dates, refer to http://students.sfu.ca/deadlines/#finances).

Bursaries
Bursaries are a supplemental source of funding for students in high financial need. Students are expected to find their primary funding through other resources such as student loans, part-time employment, savings, family, etc.

- Must have a minimum CGPA (at SFU) of 2.00 – waived for students in their first term of study at SFU.
- Must be enrolled in a minimum of 9 units/credits of normally graded courses in the term of application.
- Must have a demonstrated financial need above and beyond your primary or required funding.
- To apply – complete an online application available through SFU’s Student Information System (SIS) at: go.sfu.ca.
- Application periods (2) – for dates, refer to http://students.sfu.ca/deadlines/#finances.

Work-Study
The SFU Work-Study program provides part-time on-campus opportunities for full-time Canadian and International students. Work-study is an excellent way to earn a supplemental source of income while gaining valuable experience assisting various members of the SFU community.

- Must have a minimum CGPA (at SFU) of 2.00 – waived for students in their first term of study at SFU.
- Must be enrolled in a minimum of 9 units/credits of normally graded courses in the term of application.
- Must have a demonstrated financial need above and beyond your primary or required funding.
- To apply – complete an online application through SFU’s Student Information System (SIS) at: go.sfu.ca.
- Application period – for dates, refer to http://students.sfu.ca/deadlines/#finances.
