* Substitutions: In support of the interdisciplinary approach to the study of World Literature, students may, with prior approval of the program advisor, substitute a maximum of three lower division units and eight upper division units of relevant courses outside World Literature. The following pre-approved courses are appropriate: ENGL 207-3, ENGL 392-4, ENGL 492-4, FPA 341-3, FREN 342-4, and HUM 309-4.

WL Grade Point Average Requirements (GPAs):

☐ A minimum World Literature Cumulative GPA of 2.0

☐ A minimum World Literature Upper Division GPA of 2.0

OPTIONAL Foreign Cultural Components:

a) Study Abroad: Students are encouraged to study abroad, through field schools or exchanges. World Literature majors may complete up to 15 upper division units at other universities or other universities' field schools and exchanges with prior approval. Submit the relevant course description to the WL advisor well in advance of the course.

b) Language courses are strongly encouraged by the World Literature Program.

Student Responsibility: It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of faculty regulations as stated in the Calendar. Departmental and faculty advisors and staff are available to give advice and guidance. However, the ultimate responsibility for completeness and correctness of course selection, for compliance with and completion of program and degree requirements and for observance of regulations and deadlines rests with the student.
