

Research Assistant Opportunity

Simon Fraser University's Institute for the Study of Teaching and Learning in the Disciplines invites applications for a research assistant appointment for the Teaching and Learning Development Grant project: The Darkness Around Use is Deep: Using Narrative to Model Reflection and Promote Engagement in Business Ethics Education, to begin February 2020. To read more about this project, visit: <http://www.sfu.ca/istld/faculty/grant-programs/projects/beedie/G0282.html>

Research assistant responsibilities include:

- Coding and analyzing student data, specifically explore relationships between variables and variation over time across the data; and
- Assist PI in compiling final report.

The ideal candidate will have the following skills:

- Currently enrolled in a graduate program (MSc, MA, MEd or PhD) at SFU;
- Experience with qualitative data analyses;
- Works well independently;
- Excellent oral and written communication skills;
- Skilled in use of Microsoft Office suite; and
- Skilled use of and extensive experience with NVivo.

Experience and skills that would be an asset:

- Experience with teaching and learning research.

Rate of pay: $22 - $25/hr (incl. vacation and statutory holiday pay, no medical or dental benefits)
- based on experience, qualifications and degree program.

Time commitment: 20 - 50 hours; Spring 2020. Possibility of additional hours.

To apply: Applicants should submit: (1) a 1-page cover letter structured to address the qualifications, skills, and role responsibilities as listed above, and (2) a 1-2 page resumé with two references listed. These two items should be organized as one PDF attachment and addressed to Dr. Kathleen Burke, and emailed to kburke@sfu.ca. Note: Letters of reference will only be requested from short-listed applicants.

Application deadline: January 30, 2020, 4:30 P.M. We appreciate all replies to this position posting, however, we will only contact short-listed applicants.