

The Faculty of Education at Simon Fraser University invites applications for the position of Post-doctoral Fellow

Duration: Full time, three years from the starting date, _1 September 2022_____

Location: Faculty of Education, Simon Fraser University

Salary: $_40,000 per year plus benefits_____

Deadline to apply application will be reviewed on a rolling basis, but no later than_15 July 2022_____

Responsibilities:

The postdoctoral fellow will be involved in a SSHRC funded three-year research project on critical media literacies in teacher education, under the supervision of Dr. Angel M. Y. Lin. Responsibilities will include:

- Education ethnographic research and data analysis
- Innovative learning resources design in integrating critical media literacies across the curriculum
- Writing up analysis and reporting results in international and national journals
- Identification of funding opportunities and writing of funding applications
- Preparation of research reports
- Other research related activities

Qualifications:

The successful candidate will, by the time of appointment, have a PhD in language and literacies education, critical media literacies, social semiotics, decoloniality theory and practice in education, or a related discipline. The ideal background includes plurilingual and pluricultural capabilities and international, intercultural experiences working with teachers and students from diverse sociocultural and national backgrounds. The candidate will demonstrate evidence of strong research capacity, skills and orientations, an interest in decoloniality and epistemic justice in education, and familiarity and success with scholarly publications.

Application Details:

Interested individuals should email their cover letter, curriculum vitae, a sample of publications, and two letters of reference (under a separate cover) to Dr. Bong-gi Sohn (bsohn@sfu.ca). The position will remain open until filled.