ADMISSION CATEGORY

Indicate the category of admission under which you are applying:

- high school student: Canadian secondary school attendee, International Baccalaureate, or international high school; have completed no more than 23 transferable postsecondary credits.
- transfer student: transferring from college, technical school and/or university withing Canada and/or other countries.
- mature student: a BC resident and a Citizen or Permanent Resident of Canada, at least 23 years of age, and with no postsecondary education. Your application must be under one of SFU’s Diverse Qualifications Admission Policy, Aboriginal Admission Policy, or INLP/FNEP Admission — see page 4.
- university graduate: already holds or shortly will hold a bachelor's or higher degree from a recognized university or other recognized degree-granting institution. You may choose a special program for university graduates (Post Baccalaureate Diploma) or you may choose to attend as a non-degree student who is not seeking an SFU certificate, degree, diploma. SFU bachelor’s degrees are available to university graduates as further undergraduate degrees with reduced course requirements.
- visiting student: wish to attend SFU as a visitor, taking credit earned at SFU back to a “home” institution. As a non-degree student you are not formally admitted to an SFU program, and will have low class enrollment priority: as well, space in upper level classes in often limited. Admission is competitive and all normal admission requirements apply. An exception is made for those visitors who attend on a formal exchange program with SFU.

PROGRAM SELECTION

SFU offers more than 100 programs across eight faculties, and you can combine programs from any faculty to create a unique degree. See students.sfu.ca/calendar or further information.

DIVERSE QUALIFICATIONS

Do you wish to apply under the Diverse Qualifications Admission Policy? YES NO

Each term, we receive many more applications that we can accept. Academic performance is the main criterion for admission and is used exclusively in 90% of cases. However, we recognize that some candidates have other attributes and achievements which should be recognized in determining admission. Therefore, we seek to admit not only applicants who are academically very well-qualified but also those who meet minimum admission standards and have:

- demonstrated commitment and/or excellence in other endeavours, or
- presented a clear and valid reason for attending the University, or
- succeeded in their studies in spite of difficult circumstances.

Visit students.sfu.ca/admission requirements to find out how to apply to SFU under Diverse Qualifications and/or Aboriginal Admission Policy.

Visit www.sfu.ca/inlp/admission on how to apply to SFU under Indigenous Languages Program's FNEP Academic Outreach Admission procedures.
