

The Institute for the Humanities at SFU: A 40th Anniversary Celebration

Table of Contents

Section 1: Origins

Editorial Introduction

Samir Gandesha, Director's 40th Anniversary Statement

Jennifer Simons, Address at the Opening of the J.S. Woodsworth Chair in the Humanities

Donald Grayston, "A Valediction Forbidding Mourning"

Jerry Zaslove, "Humanitas: A Commentary"

Samir Gandesha and Stuart Poyntz, "Cosmopolis/Cosmopolitics: Humanities and Citizenship After Neoliberalism?"

In Memoriam: Patricia Graham

Section 2: Humanitas and Contours, 2002-2023

Steve Duguid, "Violence on Bowen Island: September 2000"

Jerry Zaslove, "The Joanne Brown Symposium on Violence and its Alternatives"

Chinmoy Banerjee, "Identities, Diasporas, Cosmopolitanisms, and the Possibility of Global Humanities"

Ian Angus, "Continuing Dispossession: Clearances as a Literary and Philosophical Theme"

Stephen Collis, "Come the Revolution"

Stephen Collis, "After Burnaby Mountain: Does This Change Everything?"

Libby Davies, "Grassroots Politics in Parliament"

Jennifer Simons, "Individual Responsibility in a Rapidly Changed World"

Samir Gandesha, "The Neo-Liberal Personality: Charting the Rise of Donald Trump"

Hilda Fernandez, "The Situationist and the Analyst: (Mis)encounter Between Love and Finitude. Performative Reading. Flamenco Dérive"

Jerry Zaslove, "A Small Manual of Piety and a Curriculum for the Plague: After Bertolt Brecht's Die Hauspostille"

Alessandra Capperdoni, "Noli me tangere: The Art of Parasitology in the Time of Coronavirus"

Frank Cunningham, "Why Care: Philosophical Defences"