

Beyond Belief:
A Postmodern History of Revelation, Prophecy and Miracles

by

Geoffrey Poitras
Simon Fraser University
Vancouver, BC CANADA
email: poitras@sfu.ca
website: <http://www.sfu.ca/~poitras>

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface

Acknowledgments

Chapter 1. Ancient Roots

- Revelation, Prophecy and Miracles
- The Search for Historical Jesus
- Millennial Prophecy and the Book of Revelation
- Gnostics and Manichees

Chapter 2. Christian Persecutions

- Who was St. Eulalia?
- The Crusades and the Battle of Civilizations
- Copernicus, Galileo and the First Scientific Revelation
- Was Isaac Newton an Arian?

Chapter 3. Do You Believe in Miracles?

- What is a Miracle?
- David Hume and Skeptical Empiricism
- Richard Price, Miracles and Rational Intuition
- Deism, Modernism and the Enlightenment

Chapter 4. Silenced Voices

- Mysticism, Heresy and Gender
- Inquisition, Legal torture and the Witch Hunts
- Cathars, Free Spirits and Lollards
- The Moral Economy and Voices of the Rioters

Chapter 5. Utopia and Dystopia

- Utopias: From St. Thomas More to the Shakers
- Adam Smith and the Prophecy of the Invisible Hand
- Charles Dickens and the Dystopia of Capitalism
- Millennial Prophecy and Apocalyptic Thought

Chapter 6: Postmodern Apocalyptic Thought

- Søren Kierkegaard and the 'Leap of Faith'
- Phenomenology and Existential Horror
- One Dimensional Global Risk Society
- Epistemology of Hope and Faith

Epilog

Bibliography

Index
