

THE DEPARTMENT OF GSWS &
THE DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY CO-PRESENT

Equality Deferred: Human Rights in British Columbia History

WITH
DR. DOMINIQUE CLÉMENT

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 11
7:30PM TO 9:30PM

Reception & Book signing to follow

SFU Vancouver
Harbour Centre
515 West Hastings Street
Segal Centre Rooms (1400-1410)

Has human rights transformed Canada? Are we more equal today? Dr. Clément explores the historical origins of human rights law, politics and activism and focuses on British Columbia and sex discrimination. The province was at the forefront of the women's movement and a veritable laboratory in human rights legal innovations, and yet nowhere else was human rights law more contested.

Funded by Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences (SFU): Co-presented by Department of Gender, Sexuality, and Women's Studies and Department of History (SFU); Herstory Cafe

Free, reservation required: sfu.ca/reserve

SFU

sfu.ca/gsws