Most sections of the book have a nice two-question true-false section. (One such question was assigned in the first assignment.) These questions are an excellent way of making sure that you understand the reading and reviewing for the tests.

In the first five sections, they are questions 23 and 24, except in Section 1.2, where they are questions 21 and 22.

Reading for this week:

For Friday, Section 1.5.
For Monday, Section 1.7.
For Wednesday, Section 1.8.
(Optional) You can also skim Section 1.6, which describes three simple applications of linear systems.
